

NEW AL WUROOD INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, JEDDAH, K.S.A

Affiliated to CBSE – New Delhi, Affiliation No. 5730008

TERM- 3 March, 2022-23

WORKSHEET: 1

GRADE: 7

SUBJECT: ENGLISH

SECTION A: LITERATURE

1. Choose if True or False based on the poem, The Sea-Bell.

- A. The mood of the poem is cheerful and optimistic.
- B. The imagery used creates a sense of abandonment and loneliness.
- C. Throughout the poem, the poet wishes to speak to someone.
- D. At the end of the poem, the poet feels a sense of peace.

2. Read the excerpt from a response to a personal letter and state any 2 errors.

Dear Mary,

Thank you for your letter. To answer your query about meeting up next week, I would be most delighted. I will be travelling for a few days, but I am sure I can reschedule my visit as per your arrival schedule.

I look forward to meeting

you. Sincerely,

Heidi

3. Choose ALL the sentences that tell you about the main idea of the poem, The Sea-Bell.

- a. But under cliff-eaves there were glooming caves, weed-curtained, dark and grey
- b. To myself I talk; for still they speak not, men that I meet
- c. Birds came sailing, mewing, wailing
- d. Why do you hide? Why do none speak, wherever I go?
- e. There still afloat waited the boat
- f. But whenever I came it was ever the same: the feet fled, and all was still

4. Identify the errors in the reported statement and rewrite it.

"If you fail to submit the assignment on time, you will lose the scholarship," Adam told the students.

Adam informed the students that if they failed to submit the assignment on time they willlose the scholarship.

5. Match each haiku with the correct mood.

The crow has flown away; swaying in the evening sun, a leafless tree	• Hopeful
My life, How much more of it remains? The night is brief.	• Lonely
Lighting one candle With another candle, Spring evening	• Pessimistic

6. Choose the first important event that took place in Nadia's life.

- a. Nadia gets cured of a rare birth defect after her mother enters the church.
- b. Nadia figures out how to manipulate her parents into getting her way.
- c. Nadia spends most of her childhood playing in her grandmother's garden.
- d. Nadia's grandfather picks her up seconds before the roof collapses onto the cot where she was sleeping.

7. Choose the elements that you will NOT use in a biographical sketch.

- a. An interesting title and introduction
- b. Imaginary characters and setting
- c. Direct quotes of the subject or about the subject's life
- d. Fabricated anecdotes and accomplishments

8. Which of these will help you make a biographical sketch more impactful? Choose the correct options.

- a. Using facts, incidents, and dialogue from reliable sources
- b. Using fanciful and complicated vocabulary
- c. Using first person accounts/quotes when possible
- d. Using controversial facts and incidents from unreliable sources

9. Match the given examples with the type of expository text or essay they belong to.

In the past, most women usually stayed at home to take care of domestic chores. However, in contemporary society, women play an almost equal role as men in terms of work. This has had significant consequences, such as improved quality of life and greater gender equality in society.

• Descriptive

Immediately, shouts of joy were in the air! The VTS team had scored the all-important goal that put them ahead of their opponents. For a team that depended on charitable donations, and word-of-mouth publicity to gain sponsorships, coming so far that they could beat the premier football team in the district was certainly unbelievable, but it was also a testament to their dedication to the game.

• Cause and Effect

First, whisk the eggs. Next, add the vanilla and sugar and whisk the mixture, slowly. Then, sieve the flour, baking powder, and baking soda, and whisk together with the above ingredients. After that, pour in the oil. Finally, pour the batter into a baking pan, and bake in a preheated oven for 45 minutes.

• Sequential

- a. What should you keep in mind when planning a personal letter?
- b. Introduce the anecdote with an interesting remark
- c. Highlight the lesson learned from the experience
- d. Use academic language
- e. Start with the recipient's address

10. Choose the details that will you NOT include about your biographical subject.

- a. Place of residence
- b. False titles or positions
- c. Personal opinions about the subject

d. Academic and professional qualifications

11. Match the first part of the sentence with its second part correctly.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| Simi won't be playing football this week; | • | "If you focus on your work, you will be able to finish it soon." |
| The ice cream was delicious: | • | it takes 10 minutes to get there on foot. |
| My mother advised me: | • | nutty, chocolatey, and creamy. |
| My shop is at the end of the road; | • | Sally will be replacing her in the game. |

12. Read the haiku and answer the question.

*A solitary crow on a bare
branch —autumn*

Other than the word autumn, which phrase conveys the theme of this haiku?

13. Read this excerpt from a letter you have received from a good friend. Why is it important to respond to this letter? Answer in 2–3 sentences.

I had a small fight with my best friend a few days ago. She wanted us to go on a trip for a week, but I have gotten an opportunity to work a summer job at the local museum. I was thrilled because this job is very important to me. However, she is upset because I promised to go, and I won't be able to anymore. We have not talked to each other for a few days now, and I am feeling quite lonely without her. What do you suggest?

Read the lines. Choose the sentence that summarizes them correctly.

*Of river-leaves and the rush - sheaves I made me a mantle of jewel-green, a tall wand to hold, and a flag of gold; my eyes shone like the star-sheen.
With flowers crowned I stood on a mound, and shrill as a call at cock-crow proudly I cried: 'Why do you hide? Why do none speak, wherever I go? Here now
I stand, king of this land, with gladdonsword and reed-mace. Answer my call!
Come forth all!
Speak to me words! Show me a face!*

- a. The poet bowed before the king of the strange land.
- b. The poet crowned himself king of the strange land.
- c. The poet was desperate to see a face in the strange land.
- d. The boat took the poet to a strange land where the king held a green wand.

Choose the sentence which does NOT use a colon or semicolon correctly.

- e. Bella can't wait for the weekend to arrive; she has planned to visit a beach.
- f. The school's new building is huge: we must not waste food.
- g. I like eating cheese sandwiches: they are rich and creamy.
- h. Green thumb: exceptional talent for growing plants

Do you think these lines show that the poet feels relieved? Why or why not? Answer in 2–3 sentences

*Houses were shuttered, wind round them muttered, roads were empty. I sat by a door,
and where drizzling rain poured down a drain I cast away all that I bore:
in my clutching hand some grains of sand, and a sea-shell silent and dead.*